Abstract: I discuss the Zariski multiplicity conjecture for isolated complex hypersurface singularities.

This conjecture asserts that the algebraic multiplicity of an isolated complex hypersurface singularity is an ambient topological invariant. I also recall my recent results concerning this conjecture.